CONOPUS CLUB

Regular meeting of Conopus Club held at the Grand Central Monday, May 10.

Meeting called to order by J. W. Poston, president.

Russell Lindsley won the attendance prize, a knife, presented by O. J. Hamlin.

P. S. Crossman, chairman of committee on pavement at McCoy's Corners made the following report:

Your committee, which was to meet with the borough council in reference to the widening of the pavement at the intersection of East and Main streets (McCoy's Corners), wishes to report as follows:

After explaining the need of widening the pavement at this point, the council answered your committee in this way: That the condition of the treasury would not permit of such improvement at the present time, and by the present time they gave us to understand that they meant this summer.

After a brief discussion on the part of the members concerning the cost, etc., Mr. Claude Hackett stated that seventy-five or one hundred dollars would, no doubt, make a wonderful improvement at this intersection. The council instructed Mr. Hackett to investigate the matter, and to give a very definite estimate as to the exact cost at an early date.

Mr. Hackett agreed to donate his services in doing this work if money could be raised to purchase the materials and to pay for other necessary labor.

Respectfully submitted,
P. S. CROSSMAN,
R. W. HILTON,
S. F. REDFIELD,
Committee.

Moved by T. F. Hungiville, seconded by Clyde R. Long, that the report be accepted as read and the committee continued. Carried.

T. F. Hungiville reported that S. D. Miller of the Rose Dairy Co. was in Smethport last week and looked over the situation for a milk plant or a shipping station. A survey will be made later regarding the number of pounds of milk which could be obtained. The chairman reported that a milk survey committee had been appointed and was waiting for instructions from Mr. Miller. He also stated that the Shawmut railroad was willing to do their part in securing the shipping station or condensary.

Moved by Wm. Monheimer, seconded by E. G. Potter, that the report be accepted as read. Carried.

The secretary read a letter from A. S. Browne of Buffalo, stating that Mr. McCone could be secured as speaker either of the week of May 24 or the first week in June.

Moved by F. L. Holmes, seconded by R. W. Hilton, that we invite Mr. McCone to address a future meeting of the Smethport Conopus Club.

Moved by F. H. Hungiville, seconded by Scott Redfield, that the matter of setting the date and arranging for a public meeting to be addressed by Mr. McCone on the subject of "The Open Shop," be left to the board of directors.

C. W. Shattuck offered the following resolution:

"We believe that the spirit or inclination to do a good turn is a trait which generally characterizes the individual member of our little community, and that no undertaking is too great or arduous when its primary object is to help the other fellow over some particularly rough place on life's journey. We have come to recognize the fact that we have amongst us two women who have not only the spirit and the willingness, but who between them have the means and the ability to do an immeasurable amount of good, and who have, by their example, demonstrated to us what real service to humanity means, namely, the searching out of the sick and the afflicted and when found to succor and tenderly care for them, and to supply their more pressing needs. The two estimable women to whom I refer and who are daily rendering this character of service are Mrs. Merrill and Miss Mollie McCabe.

Therefore be it so resolved, that we, the members of the Smethport Conopus Club do hereby adopt this method of expressing to Mrs. Merrill and Miss McCabe our deep sense of appreciation for the good and efficient work they are doing, and that we do further pledge ourselves individually and collectively to be ever ready to render unto them every assistance which it is in our power to give.

And be it further resolved that our secretary be requested to furnish a copy of these resolutions to Mrs. Merrill and Miss McCabe in order that they might know that we have enlisted in their service and are subject to their orders.

Mr. White of the White Entertaining Co. of Boston, addressed the club regarding a course of the entertainment for Smethport.

Moved by T. F. Hungiville, seconded H. J. Rice, that a committee be appointed to meet Mr. White and report at the next meeting. Committee appointed. P. S. Crossman, S. F. Redfield, J. L. Morrison.

Meeting adjourned at 1:05 p.m.

DEATH OF MR. O. J. BURDICK

O. J. Burdick, a highly respected resident of this vicinity passed away at his home on the Marvin Creek road, Thursday, April 29, after an illness of almost four months. Mr. Burdick was born in Norwich township, January 24, 1864, and had always been a resident of this part of the county. He was an industrious man, upright citizen and loving husband and father, whose death occasioned much sincere sorrow. His wife and son were at his bedside when the end came, also his brother, Wellie Burdick of East Smethport.

Mr. Burdick was held in high esteem by his fellow workmen and lodge brothers. He had been a member of the I. O. O. F. and Brotherhood for the past twenty years, was also a member of the K. O. T. M. He was a valuable citizen whose loss is deplored by the community, and the tender sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved wife and son, L. L. Burdick.

The funeral was held at the Methodist Episcopal Church, Sunday, May 2, the Rev. Arthur Gregson officiating. The Smethport Odd Fellows lodges were represented by fully forty members, and many of his fellow workmen were also in attendance. The floral tributes were abundant and beautiful a mute testimonial of the regard in which this good man was held by all who knew him. Interment was in Rose Hill cemetery.

E. C. Burdick of Moorehead, Ky., a brother of the deceased, was in attendance at the funeral, and spent a few days visiting relatives here.

NEW CHURCH TO BE ERECTED AT CROSBY

RESIDENTS OF NORWICH TOWNSHIP, REGARDLESS OF DENOMINATION, ARE MAKING EFFORTS TO BUILD NEW M. E. CHURCH—INTERESTING NOTES FROM CROSBY

The MINER is enabled this week to present a picture of the proposed new church to be erected at Crosby. The residents of Norwich township, regardless of church affiliations, are making a united effort to raise funds for the building of this beautiful edifice which will be a credit to their efforts when completed. The names of the members of the committee, which together with Rev. W. H. Edmunds, has the matter in charge follow:

C. A. Anderson, Chairman
Hermon Lord, Secretary
S. L. Winslow, Treasurer
Mrs. B. W. Heinemann
Mrs. Mary Winslow
Mrs. Nellie Bloomster
Mrs. Hazel Bloomster
Miss Grace Winslow
Miss Theresea Swort
James Bloomster
Frank Bloomster
Earl Manwaring

Following is a characteristic budget of Crosby items which shows the efforts the people of that vicinity are putting forth:

Our Sunday School classes at Crosby are certainly doing their little bit toward building a new church.

The Tri Mues, at their social last week made a profit of $55, which amount they will give to the building fund. We understand this is only an instalment of something bigger.

The Joan of Arc's were much in evidence on Monday evening, and gave us a supper that certainly was different. We don't know where all the eats came from, but everybody said they were good. We noticed that the Every Ready's true to their name, were on hand to help the hard pressed Joan of Arc's. The class made a profit of $41.

The Colegrove Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. W. H. Edmunds at Crosby on Wednesday next.

Mrs. Nellie Bloomster reports a good convention of the W. C. T. U. at Bradford last week, to which place she went with Mrs. B. W. Heinemann as delegate.

The Mothres' Day services were well attended in all the churches on Sunday.

The matter of the Town Improvement Society is not forgotten, only postponed for a little while.

Service in Crosby church Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Hazel Bloomster's class had a class party Saturday afternoon, all report a good time.

DEATH OF AN OLD SETTLER

Editor Miner:—One of the old residents and settlers of Smethport, Mr. Joseph P. Clyens passed away April 29, 1920, in Chicago, Ill., following an automobile accident and his family are desirous of a notice being inserted in your paper, hoping that some of his old friends, who may still be living will see and remember.

Mr. Clyens was born June 29, 1849, in County Monaghan, Ireland, coming to this country with his parents while still a child in arms. He spent his early youth and young manhood in and about Ceres, coming west in the early eighties and finally settling in Chicago where he has made his home for the last thirty-five years. For the last thirty years he has been engaged in the insurance business in a very successful way. He died honored and respected by thousands whom he came in contact with in both a business and social way. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Warren D. Roth and three sisters. Mrs. Mary E. Lease of New York; Mrs. Evelyn C. Timmis of Chicago, and Mrs. Jennie Platner of Erie, Pa. Mr. Clyens' mother is buried in Ceres. His father Joseph P. BOY SCOUTS AGAIN FIGHT FOREST FIRES

Last week forest fires in the vicinity of Rock Ledge threatened to assume serious proportions and the Smethport Boy Scouts were again called upon for assistance. They did splendid work in helping to stop the spread of the flames.

The forestry department of the state is conducting an energetic campaign to reduce the ravages of forest fires and it would seem a good plan to encourage the Boy Scouts to keep up and enlarge upon their good work in fighting fires after they get started.

The forestry department is trying to make the owners of timberland tracts abide by the fire hazard law without resorting to harsh measures. The department gives out a statement that leading railroads are willing to clear strips 100 feet wide on each side of their right of way where the said railroads run through timberlands, providing that permission may be secured from the owners. The railroads will bear the expense of the work and the forestry department urges that they be given the desired permission.

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Methodism has always emphasized fellowship. We believe in the religion of "the warm heart." The man who thanks God "he is not as other men" could never be at home in this church. Our hand and heart is yours. Come and worship with us. The church with the spire bids you welcome. Sermon subject next Sunday morning: "Diana or Christ."

MELLVILLE GILLETT

"If every voter in the district knew Capt. "Mel." Gillett as well as the people of his home town knew him there would be no need of an election so far as delegate to the Republican National Convention is concerned," said a Smethport man the other day. "They would all say, "let's send Mel. Gillett and let it go at that."

"His personality is most pleasing and the average man instinctively likes him. However he isn't making the run on his personality, but as a man thoroughly informed as to the business and political situations of the day.

"His friendship with many of the really prominent Republicans of the country should make him especially valuable as a delegate. During his military and business career he has traveled over nearly the whole United States and has had exceptional opportunities not only to grasp the political sentiments in various sections of the country, but to meet in a personal manner the representative men as well.

He is personally acquainted with National Chairman Will Hays, and scores of other leading Republicans, who will take a big part in the coming convention. In my opinion a man to be a satisfactory delegate should know something of party affairs before the convention occurs and Capt. Gillett certainly has had abundant facilities for acquiring that knowledge."—Raftman's Journal, Clearfield.

MORE ROAD IMPROVEMENT

The County Commissioners, together with public spirited citizens of McKean County, are raising funds for the purpose of opening a detour from Ormsby to Boyer via the old B. L. & K. R. R. grade. One of the commissioners stated that the object was to make this a permanent road.

It might be well for all persons interested in this road to contribute as much as they are able, as this project has been under consideration for a number of years, and now when it comes to be perfected with little expense to the townships, is the time to get busy. The county officials may not have another opportunity to spend county funds for opening this road. Let everyone interested get ready and boost.

Commissioner Gahagan has been authorized to receive contributions.—Mt. Jewett Herald.

LEO GEMMELL AS A BURGLAR

It has been learned definitely that Leo Kelly Gemmell, the boy-murderer, was one of those who entered the Degolia post office last Wednesday night, and stole a quantity of post cards, packages of gum, packages of cigarette papers, etc., for a whole box full of those articles were found by his relatives at the home of Oliver Gemmell out West Branch, who turned the stolen goods over to the police. The picture post cards have the address "Degolia," printed on them. It is believed by the police that two boys accompanied Gemmell when he burglarized the post office, for two boys were seen with him that night. The stolen property will be turned over to Mrs. Bishop, postmistress.—Bradford Star-Record.

UNION STREET BUILDING COLLAPSED

The two-story brick veneered building on Union street, Olean, collapsed Wednesday of last week, the whole structure tumbling into the excavation beside it where construction work is in progress for a new building. Heath's jewelry store occupied the first floor and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Chase, formerly of East Smethport, and a family named Winters, lived upon the second floor. Mr. Chase was absent at his work when the crash occurred. Mrs. Chase was alarmed by the ominous sound of cracking timbers and ran down the back stairs and out of doors just as the building fell. She just escaped with her life, in fact during the following excitement it was reported that she was buried in the debris. The Winters family and jewelry store force escaped through the front entrances.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase lost all their belongings excepting the clothing they were wearing when the building went down. While most of the stock from the jewelry store was recovered, the property of the people upon the second floor was a total loss.

PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT

The three Guilds, St. Helen, St. Margaret and St. Agnes of the Junior Auxiliary of St. Luke's Church, closed their work before the summer vacation with an entertainment at the Parish House, Saturday night. Redfield, presented a Missionary Play, and St. Agnes', directed by Miss Mae Choate, presented a play, "Turning the Tables." The girls participating in this entertaining program accomplished most pleasing results and showed the effects of careful training. After the program work of the guild members was exhibited and prizes awarded for efficiency and regular attendance. Refreshments were served.

WEAK MINDED YOUTH KILLS BABY GIRL

Scolded because he had taken the horse and buggy from the barn without permission, Leo Kelly, 16, also known as Leo Gemmel, an escaped patient from the Polk Institute for Feeble Minded, Thursday, in the absence of the family, deliberately murdered Ruby, 10-months-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gemmel, at their home in the West Branch district, near Bradford, by cutting her throat with a dull pocketknife. Bathed in its own blood the infant was found dead by Jack Gemmel, brother of Oliver, a short time after the crime. The naked body was found in an upper room on an old mattress with an overcoat thrown over it. The alleged murderer was apprehended in the public road a short distance from the house by the grief-stricken father who held him a prisoner until the arrival of the authorities from Bradford. He is now in a cell in the county jail. The dead child is a niece of her murderer.

It is said young Kelly admits his guilt, and states that he did it because he was "mad at Jack." The latter was tending the children for the parents during their brief absence from home.

The crime is one of the most dastardly in the history of McKean county. A knowledge of the facts is sufficient to make one's blood run cold, and it is said great self-restraint was required to prevent a lynching upon the part of those who looked upon the naked body of the innocent child as it lay upon the bed, bathed in its own blood and with ragged gashes gaping in its little white throat.

It is said that Wednesday evening Leo Gemmel visited the home of Oliver Gemmel and took the horse and carriage from the barn without permission, returning the rig yesterday morning while the owner was out searching for it. Desiring to prevent her husband from further needless search Mrs. Gemmel went to Bradford in search of him. It was during the absence of both that young Kelly, or Gemmel, passed unnoticed upstairs and committed the horrible deed. He then left the house and started afoot up the road.

"He has killed the baby," Jack, brother of the father, said to the latter as he arrived at the house upon his return from hunting for the rig. The brother had discovered the dead child a few minutes prior to the father's return. The latter rushed to the room designated and was stunned and dazed by the sight before him. Composing himself to some extent he hurriedly left the house in pursuit of the feeble minded murderer, whom he overtook in front of the next door neighbor's house some distance from his own home.

A call was sent to Bradford for police and Chief Howe, accompanied by Patrolman Foster responded. They found the grief-stricken father in the road holding the murdered child awaiting their arrival. Both were standing in front of the neighbor's home where the father had overtaken the youth. The accused lad was taken to Bradford and lodged in jail. Mr. Gemmel then started out to find his wife, who was still searching for him. He overtook her on State street just after she had left the James Gemmel home. It then became the heart-breaking duty of the husband and father to appraise his wife of the death of their baby. It is said Mrs. Gemmel was so overcome by the shock that she collapsed.

Leo Kelly, 16-year-old slayer of his little niece, Ruby Gemmell, was brought to Smethport Friday afternoon by County Detective Allison. A coroner's jury earlier in the afternoon had viewed the infant, died of wounds inflicted by Kelly.

At the inquest it was disclosed that in addition to the large gash in the baby's throat which caused her death, Kelly had inflicted another wound on her body. He apparently had thrust his knife into the child's breast and then had drawn it around the left side almost to the backbone, inflicting a deep gash. The wound in the infant's throat showed that both the jugular vien and the windpipe had been severed.

Kelly, himself, was taken to Koch's undertaking chapel and permitted to view the body of his little victim before the inquest. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Gemmel, parents of the dead child, and Jack Gemmell, an uncle, attended the inquest as did also a sister of Kelly's.

The coroner's jury consisted of M. L. Willis, foreman; H. H. Adsit, Frank Zook, M. Roland, George Clough and E. W. Hisett. Coroner Hefner presided.

SALVATION ARMY "A TOWER OF STRENGTH," SAYS HELEN KELLER

Salvation Army officers in Pittsburgh were amazed and pleased recently to learn from Helen Keller herself that, despite her handicaps, she is almost as familiar with the work of the organization as any doughboy who fought in France.

In perfectly enunciated English this girl, who in childhood was dumb as well as blind and deaf, told Brigadier Josephine Albright, in charge of the Army's work in Pittsburgh, how highly she esteems the organization.

"I feel that all the afflicted of mankind have a tower of strength in the Salvation Army," she stated.

"I honor the women of the organization for their courage and efficiency.

"The Salvation Army is an organization of lives showing forth the spirit of Him who raises those that fall and holds up those that are bowed down."

Miss Keller's tribute to the Salvationists came in the course of a theatrical trip which she is now making.

W. PENNA. URGED TO SUBSCRIBE QUOTA

Residents of Western Pennsylvania now engaged in work among the stricken peoples of Armenia under the direction of the American Committee for Near East Relief, have cabled Chancellor Samuel B. McCormick, of the University of Pittsburgh, chairman of the Western Pennsylvania Committee for Near East Relief, informing him of the deaths of many Armenians at Erivan, Armenia, because of lack of proper clothing and nourishment.

"The whole hope of the Near East people is in generous-hearted America; please urge the people of my State to do their share for Near East Relief," is the appeal of these relief workers to their fellow Western Pennsylvanians to raise the quota of $1,400,000 assigned to this part of the State in the nation-wide drive for Near East Relief.

The Western Pennsylvanians in the Near East are James Bell, of 20 Ellwood avenue, Crafton; Raymond Custer, of 7721 Tioga street, Pittsburgh and Miss Nancy McFarland, of 5501 Elmer street, Pittsburgh. Miss Louise H. Chamberlain, of 925 East Morton street, New Castle, who recently returned to her home after 10 months' service as a nurse in the Near East Relief Hospitals at Erivan, has corroborated the statements of extreme suffering and death by starvation of thousands of Armenians made by officials of the Near East Relief and members of the United States Army Commission to the Near East who made a survey of conditions there.

The cablegram from the Western Pennsylvania workers follows:

"Erivan, Armenia.

"Conditions here are very bad. Many are dying from lack of proper clothing and nourishment. Orphanages are crowded and many are wandering about in the open places. We are doing all we can with the limited funds at our disposal. The whole hope of the Near East people is in generous-hearted America. Please urge the people of my State to do their share for Near East Relief."

PRIMARIES NEXT TUESDAY

Every Republican voter in the district should make it appoint to go to the polls next Tuesday, May 18, and cast his ballot for the candidates of his choice. This is one of the most important primaries in the history of the party and indifference should not keep one voter at home. This year every citizen has the privilege of expressing his choice for President of the United States and this is an opportunity he should avail himself of. It will be necessary for most of the voters of this district to write their choice upon the ballot as it is understood that only one name will appear upon the Republican ballots, that of an obscure individual named Wood who resides in Philadelphia. Voters are warned not to let a seeming similarity of names confuse their choice.

For Member of Congress McKean County has a splendid candidate in the person of Evan J. Jones of Bradford. Mr. Jones is now serving his first term in Congress and his value to the district will be greatly enhanced by his re-election. His worth is appreciated in the law-making body of the land and his election to the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee was an almost unprecedented honor to be conferred upon a first term Congressman. Here in McKean County his vote will be a tremendous one and there is reason to suppose that his nomination will be brought about by a record-breaking plurality.

Hon. Frank E. Baldwin who has served this district so well in the State Senate is a candidate for renomination. Mr. Baldwin is at the height of his popularity and worth to the people he represents, and at present holds the office of president of the Senate, the highest gift within the power of that body, which was conferred upon him by unanimous vote. His renomination and subsequent election seem assured, as it would be the height of folly for the voters to adopt any other course at this time.

McKean County's two able Members of Assembly will undoubtedly win in a walk, not only at the primaries but at the polls in November. Hon. John A. Fitzgibbon of Bradford and Hon. Charles W. Catlin of Port Allegany have established records in the state legislature that makes them sure winners with the voters of the county. Both are lawyers, capable and energetic, with a thorough knowledge of the affairs of the people they represent.

Harry B. Scott of Philipsburg, Center County, Pa., is a candidate for delegate to the National Republican Convention. Mr. Scott is a prominent coal operator, an experienced business man, entirely well qualified to fill the position which he seeks. Reports are that he will prove a popular candidate.

A. H. Gaffney of Kane is a candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention. He is a well known manufacturer identified with the plate glass and window glass industries. Mr. Gaffney's splendid qualifications and undeniable popularity will make him a strong contender for the office which he seeks and there is not the slightest question that if elected he will attend to the duties in a satisfactory manner.

Captain Mellville Gillett, our honored townsman, is a candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention. Here in Smethport his vote will be pretty nearly unanimous, and throughout the district his popularity as a man, his thorough business experience and his splendid military record in both the Spanish-American and World Wars are winning supporters to his side. He has pledged himself to abide by the people's choice for President, and men familiar with the outlook say that his chances for success are very bright.

Do not stay away from the primaries next Tuesday and then complain if the results do not meet with your approval. It is the duty of every Republican in the county and district who has the welfare of his country at heart to make it a point to cast his ballot at his party primary. Indifference at the primaries may create dissatisfaction before election. The leading candidates in the Republican race have made known their aspirations through the MINER, they are excellent men for the places and it should be not only a duty but a pleasure to express one's choice at the primaries next Tuesday.

Judge Sylvester B. Sadler of the Cumberland County Court, has received bar association endorsements from a majority of the counties of the state and will be nominated for Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. There is every reason to expect that Judge Sadler will receive such a large majority vote in the primary election as to practically elect him in the primary. Judge Sadler holds an enviable record as a jurist and will go to the Supreme bench of the state with a large experience. Added to his experience as presiding jurist in the lower courts is profound knowledge of the law, wide education, and admirable traits of personal character. So acceptable is Judge Sadler to the state bar and to the laymen generally that only nominal opposition has been expressed to his candidacy. McKean County voters will gladly follow the example of the county bar associations in endorsing the candidacy of Judge Sadler.

A Democratic editor wants to know why Congress does not prosecute the profiteers. Like most Democratic editors he has evidently overlooked the constitution, which provides that Congress shall enact laws and the executive department, headed by the President, shall enforce them. We pay an Attorney General and his army of assistants to prosecute violators of the law.

WHY INSURANCE IS NEEDED

When a man buys an automobile he enters into an agreement with the public to do practically this:

"I guarantee to pay for any injuries that my automobile may cause, whether it be to a person, or to a man's property, real or personal, regardless of whether I am driving it, and regardless of whether I am in the car at the time of the accident.

"In this I agree to pay all hospital bills, doctor bills, nurse bills, costs of judicial proceedings, any judgments, regardless of amount, that grows out of an injury produced by my car.

"As a further guarantee to this contract, I pledge as security all my real estate, chattels and property of any kind which I now own, and

"Still further guarantee to the performance of this contract all real estate, personal chattels and property of any kind, which I may hereafter acquire, accumulate or possess."

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS

Having announced my candidacy last January for delegate to our National Convention, I desire to frankly state my position.

If I were to vote for my personal choice in the convention I would vote for our excellent governor, if he were a candidate, but if he were not; then I would support General Wood.

However, I have officially pledged myself to support whoever appears to be the choice of the majority of the Republicans in the district, as shown by the primary returns, and if elected I propose to redeem that pledge regardless of my own preferences.

I have always believed that the delegate is not sent to the convention to vote his own choice, but the choice of the people who have honored him by electing him.

Under our primary law the voter has a right to express his choice either by voting for such candidate as has his name printed on the ballot or by writing in the name of some other person for whom he wishes to vote.

If the Republicans of this district desire to express a choice and at the same time elect me to represent them as one of the delegates, I shall feel in honor bound to respect their wishes fully.

I will indeed be most grateful if the people will lend me their support on May 18 in the primary election.

VOTE FOR
Mellville Gillett
Smethport, Pa.

Captain Mellville Gillett, Candidate for Delegate to the National Republican Convention at Chicago, has pledged himself to support the popular choice of this district as expressed in the preferential primary vote, May 18th.

He gives the voters of the district credit for possessing the necessary intelligence to make the popular choice known by the way they cast their ballots on that day.

The argument has been advanced that a delegate should not thus hamper his action at the convention, but to Captain Gillett any other course than the one dictated by the Republican voters of the district, he aspires to represent, would be contrary to the spirit of majority rule, which despite official acts of the present administration, is still a strong fundamental principle of our government.

The voters of the district will no doubt express their preference for a Presidential candidate in emphatic terms at the primaries; and as long as their so designated choice is a possible successful factor for the nomination at the hands of the convention, he will receive the support of Captain Gillett, if elected a delegate to the convention by the Republican voters of the District.

Don't fail to WRITE the name of YOUR preference for PRESIDENT on your ballot.

Cream! Cream!

Why do you sell your milk off the farm when you can get so much more for your cream (taking in consideration the value of your skim milk). In Prof. Henry's book on feeds and feeding, it is claimed that 100 lbs. skim milk equals 1-2 bushel corn for hogs or calves.

Corn is $2.20 per bushel now, so your skimmed milk has a feeding value over $1.00 per 100 lbs., 4 per cent milk brings you $2.60 per 100 in selling your cream now.

Besides you need only to deliver your cream a few times a week, while your milk must be delivered daily.

Why Churn Your Cream At Home?

At the present high price of labor you lose money churning your own cream as one man can churn much cheaper for 100 farmers than what each can churn himself.

I buy cream every Monday, Wednesday and Friday and pay the highest market price for butterfat.

I guarantee you a fair deal in every way. A trial will convince you.
